

About Researcher Registration – Interested in conducting research in our archives room?

Explore Our Rich History: You are invited to delve into our comprehensive archives with the guidance of our volunteers and archivist. Whether you are a first-time visitor or a seasoned researcher, our dedicated team is here to assist you.

Planning Your Visit:

- Appointment Scheduling: To maximize your research experience, we recommend scheduling an appointment with our archives team. This ensures personalized attention and access to the resources most relevant to your research interests.
- Volunteer Docents: Our knowledgeable volunteers are eager to guide you through our extensive collections, offering insights and answering questions along the way.

Using Our Collections:

- Cataloging System: Our collections are cataloged using Past Perfect 5, reflecting industry standards for archival management.
- Collection Access: The archives are strictly for reference. Please register using our Research Registration Form before accessing the materials.

Contributions and Donations:

- Funding: We are proudly supported by the Municipality of Northern Bruce Peninsula and generous public donations. Your contributions enhance our efforts in preserving and sharing local history.
- Donating Historical Items: Interested in making a donation? Please review our materials and evaluation process and consider completing a Deed of Gift Agreement to contribute items of historical significance.
